Country Lips are a country-streaked Seattle nine-piece family-like band. They sound and play like classic country's raucous and rowdy boys – and their live shows are becoming legendarily wild!

Polecat's unique instrumentation enables them to seamlessly blend genres including bluegrass, country, celtic, rock, and world music into their sound. The core audience of Polecat is, well, everybody.

Shakespeare in the Park - Othello - Thursday, July 24th, 7pm, Ober Park.

GreenStage is Seattle's longest-running Shakespeare company. The talent of their artists, the beauty of the natural park spaces, and the imagination and participation of the audiences creates inspiring productions that allow everyone involved to experience live theatre, and Shakespeare in particular, in new ways.

Clinton Fearon is counted among Jamaica's most talented musicians by peers and professionals in the Reggae music industry. His infectious bass riffs have always led the way, whether he is playing bass, guitar or percussion, singing lead vocals or providing background harmonies.

Portage Fill - Thursday, September 4th, 7pm, Ober Park.

Comprised of about 20 Islanders ranging from professional musicians to amateurs, the community musical group is celebrating its 41st anniversary this year by hosting a "Jazz for a Good Cause" Vashon charity fundraiser through the Concerts in the Park series.

Concerts in the Park are the Vashon Park District's way of bringing together the community to enjoy our open spaces. Produced by Vashon Events, we are pleased to bring you some of the hottest bands out of Seattle in a variety of genres, our special night of Shakespeare, and a season finale by Vashon's Portage Philharmonic. Bring a picnic and a blanket and come out each concert to enjoy the summer evenings with your neighbors!
